An INCREASE of 19,617 Lines IN FEBRUARY

The New Yorker Staats-Zeitung is the ONLY morning and Sunday newspaper in New York that showed in increase in advertising during the month of February, as compared with the same month of a year ago.

During the month of January its gain was 23,699 lines.

During the month of December its gain was 70,991 lines.

This steady gain in advertising is most note-

It means that both the national and local advertisers are realizing the exceptional value of the Staats-Zeitung and are making greater use of its columns than ever.

With its large daily and Sunday circulationgreater than that of any German daily in America-and its tremendous influence the Staats-Zeitung is indeed a good advertising medium.
